RE: SCANA/SCE&G/Dominion Energy

Commissioner Howard:

Since Dominion has now acquired SCE&G and negotiations are complete, nonetheless, it is appalling that thousands of SCE&G customers will continue to pay for the bad business decision made by SCE&G/SCANA. That we will be billed for that mistake for twenty (20) years with a very slight rate reduction from Dominion is unconscionable. The promised $1000.00 customer rebate – what happened to that?

Sears has just filed bankruptcy; I dare say that those of us who purchased goods from that business will not be notified that we will be charged for their bad business decisions. Yet, we will continue to pay for SCE&G's mistakes.

The lack of information provided to customers, from day one of the debacle, by the Commission belies its name "public service". Public service was obviously overlooked when you and other Commissioners negotiated this horrific deal.

The dissatisfaction and anger I feel about this will not dissipate. You and the entire Commission failed miserably.

Ann V. Randall
